

The Aims of the School

The school aims to provide a safe, stimulating environment in which pupils will develop:

- Lively, enquiring minds, with the ability to question and argue rationally, and to apply themselves to tasks confidently and independently.
- A reasoned set of attitudes, values and beliefs.
- Health and fitness and become equipped with a range of physical skills.
- The skills necessary to cope with an ever changing world and become well-rounded individuals.
- Interests which will enable them to enjoy and make the best use of their leisure time.
- Respect for others, regardless of their ethnic origin or socio-economic background, and to understand that people have different religions, beliefs and ways of life.
- Good relationships and a sense of belonging to the school community.

Parents can assist the school in achieving these aims by:

- Ensuring that children attend school in good health maintained by an adequate diet.
- Ensuring that they attend regularly, punctually and suitably dressed.
- Providing support for discipline within the school.
- Being realistic about their children's abilities and offering encouragement and praise.
- Encouraging and helping with homework and hearing reading.
- Attending parents' consultation evenings and other meetings relevant to their child.
